

Where achieving your doctoral degree is just the beginning of a great future.

Earn your doctoral degree and take your career to the next level! East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania is now offering a convenient and affordable doctoral program at its Center City, Market Street location. Having produced some of the finest educational administrators in the Northeast region, ESU is proud to bring its doctoral program to Philadelphia starting October 2017. Are you ready for the journey? Visit esu.edu/doctoral and contact 570-422-3890 to get started.

ATTEND OUR INFORMATIONAL SESSION

August 9, 2017 | 4–6 p.m.

Mellon Independence Center, 701 Market Street, Concourse Level, Philadelphia, PA

CONVENIENT

- All courses are taught at the Center City Philadelphia site, 701 Market Street.
- The course schedule is designed to accommodate the busy life of school administrators, college faculty, and college administrators.
- The doctoral program has been producing outstanding educators for 16 years.
- Weekend classes (5/semester) are presented in an executive format combining theory and application.

COMPREHENSIVE

- Candidates progress in a cohort, fostering collaboration and shared learning.
- Coursework is supplemented by cohort retreats designed to improve leadership skills and enhance problem solving.
- Doctoral faculty support candidates throughout coursework and the dissertation process.

EAST STROUDSBURG UNIVERSITY

Where WARRIORS Belong